From the Pastor

*“Christ is Risen!”
“He is risen indeed!”*

The familiar call and response that we used to celebrate Easter just a few days ago. This joyful exclamation is the culmination of a long journey through Lent – what was hopefully a journey of reflection, self-discovery, and re-dedication for all of us.

“He is risen indeed!”*

The resurrection! This is what we’ve been waiting for. In this one event, we find glory and grace, majesty and mercy, rejoicing and redemption. In this one event, the ferocity and finality of death are flipped on their heads. Yes, Christ died. Yes, Christ remained in the grave for three days. But death could not keep its hold on the Son of God. After those three days, Christ rose again, snatching us away from the clutches of death and giving us the opportunity for eternal life through faith. This is what we celebrate on Easter morning – the resurrection of Christ and the dawn of salvation.

But what now? Where do we go with the joy and fervor of Easter?

What better example to look to than that of Christ? When we look to the gospels, we find Christ out and about in all four of them following the resurrection. Following the glory and triumph of Easter, Jesus ensures that his message – God’s message – of forgiveness and unconditional love will continue to multiply among the people, reaching as many ears and hearts and souls as possible.

Matthew tells us that Jesus appeared to the women (Mary Magdalene and “the other Mary”) as well as the disciples before bestowing on them the Great Commission: “Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you.” (Mt 28:19-20a)

Mark’s longer ending also describes Jesus appearing to Mary and the disciples and giving them a commission: “Go into all the world and proclaim the good news to the whole creation.” (Mk 16:15)

In Luke, Jesus appears to a select few on the road to Emmaus before he appears to the rest of the disciples, breaking bread and eating with them and giving them his peace. (Lk 24:13-49)

John’s gospel reports Jesus appearing to many: Mary, a room full of disciples, and later to Thomas. Following these appearances, he stays with them for a time before leaving Peter with a challenge: “Feed my sheep.” (Jn 21:17b).

And we are living proof that the disciples did as they were instructed. In the weeks that followed, they spent time in Jerusalem regrouping, worshiping and praying, teaching and preaching before Pentecost happened and they all dispersed to various countries and territories, taking the good news of the gospel with them.

Jesus took the message out. After he ascended into heaven, the disciples followed in his footsteps and took the message out even further. And now it’s our turn. Instead of going back to “life as usual,” instead of silently and causally slipping back into our old routines, let’s take that message even further. On Easter morning, we celebrated the salvation and hope of a resurrected Christ. After all of that miracle and mystery, how can we act as though we aren’t changed by the good news of the gospel: Through Christ’s death and resurrection, we have been saved from the clutches of sin and death for a life of eternal and blessed relationship with God, creator, redeemer, and sustainer of all.

*“Christ is Risen!”
“He is risen indeed!”*

Blessings,
Pastor Lisa

In Our Prayers

Evening and morning and at noon I will pray, and cry aloud, and He shall hear my voice. Psalm 55:17

The friends and family of Richard Tiede, Nick Pahl, Ann Hawkins and Dianne Pinney (Pastor Lisa's mother).

(O/Z) Possible Textile Group

Pastor Lisa is wondering if there's any interest in a knitting/crocheting/other needlework group. We could include knitting, crocheting, quilting/other sewing, etc. This group could be an ecumenical opportunity, being held in one church one month and the other church the next month. We could work on our own projects or on project to donate to places like the local schools or other organizations in Rochester and the Twin Cities that need hats, mittens, sweaters, blankets, etc. There are even international organizations that are happy to distribute home-made items to those in need around the world. If you're interested in being a part of a group like this, please either email Pastor Lisa (PastorLisaJ@gmail.com) or call (507-696-8753).

(O/Z) Pastor Lisa's Library

For anyone who hasn't poked their head in my Oronoco office yet, I've got quite the library. And I'm more than happy to loan my books out to anyone who might be interested. There are books on a number of different topics – everything from history and theology to mission and spiritual renewal. There's a notebook on the bookshelf that I'll be using as a log so I can track where my books are, but whether I'm in or not, feel free to peruse the shelf and borrow anything that tickles your fancy!

(O/Z) Prayer Chain

Since prayer is such a central part of our spiritual lives, one of the first things I'd like to do is revitalize the prayer chains in both congregations. After much thought and discussion with both congregations, I've decided to do something a little different with the prayer chain, though. For the most part, it will be an email tree. When a prayer request comes to my attention, I will send it out via email to all those who wish to participate. When the prayer request shows up in your inbox, you can print it off and use it as part of your daily prayer routine, you can say a short prayer right then and there before you delete it, or you can keep it in your inbox and say a prayer every time you see the email. However, if you would prefer to receive a phone call about the prayer requests, I'm more than happy to call you instead of sending an email. If you're interested, please let Pastor Lisa know (PastorLisaJ@gmail.com or 507-696-8753). Also, please let me know whether you'd prefer being part of the email tree or whether you'd like a phone call. Thanks.

Annual Open and Affirming (ONA)
Worship Celebration - "Widening the Circle"
Union Congregational Church,
United Church of Christ
118 4th St., Elk River
April 14, 2013
Workshops at 2:30 p.m.
Worship at 4 p.m.
Reception following.

This year, our Conference Open and Affirming (ONA) Celebration will be something new! The success of the "Vote NO on the Marriage Amendment" campaign last fall gives our 39 churches an additional reason to gather and celebrate being in community with together. We need to see and embrace each other; worship, sing, pray, study, eat and vision together; and for some this year to lodge and travel together.

The worship this year will be led by Rev. Dr. J. Bennet Guess, Executive, Minister for Local Church Ministries of the UCC. Guess has written more than 500 articles on all aspects of the church, earning him more than 60 awards. His writing demonstrates his broad knowledge of the UCC and local-church life and demonstrates his capacity to think critically as well as creatively. He is a member of numerous ecumenical organizations and is a member of the UCC's 5 member national Collegium of Officers.

Music will be provided by the St. Anthony Park United Church of Christ sanctuary choir.

Two workshops are offered at 2:30 p.m.: "A New Way of Doing Church" presented by Shift UCC - a brand new ministry setting within the Minnesota Conference of the United Church of Christ, led by Lawrence T. Richardson, and "Sing Out" led by Gigi Nauer, co-director at Pilgrim Point Camp and Music Director for Pilgrims' UCC in Maple Grove.

Readers of OZ

Due to weather and absences, the Readers of OZ March meeting was canceled. We will discuss the March selection "The Testament of Mary" by Colm Toibin at our April 9th gathering at 7:00 p.m. at the home of Rex & Lynn Wiederanders (40054 Hwy 58 Blvd, Goodhue). If you need directions call the Wiederanders at 651-923-4164. All are welcome.

If you wish to get a head start on reading our May selection, we have chosen "The Book Thief" by Markus Zusak. The Barnes and Noble overview states:

"It's just a small story really, about among other things: a girl, some words, an accordionist, some fanatical Germans, a Jewish fist-fighter, and quite a lot of thievery. . . .

Set during World War II in Germany, Markus Zusak's groundbreaking new novel is the story of Liesel Meminger, a foster girl living outside of Munich. Liesel scratches out a meager existence for herself by stealing when she encounters something she can't resist—books. With the help of her accordion-playing foster father, she learns to read and shares her stolen books with her neighbors during bombing raids as well as with the Jewish man hidden in her basement before he is marched to Dachau. This is an unforgettable story about the ability of books to feed the soul."

Tithing...

There were two men shipwrecked on this island. The minute they got to the island, one of them started screaming and yelling.

"We're going to die! We're going to die! There's no food! No water! We're going to die!"

The second man was propped up against a palm tree and acting so calmly it drove the first man crazy.

"Don't you understand?!" We're going to die!!" the first man said.

"You don't understand. I make $100,000 a week," said the second man.

The first man looked at him quite dumbfounded and asked what difference does it make? We're on an island with no food and no water! We're going to die!!!"

The second man answered, " You just don't get it. I make $100,000 a week. I tithe. My pastor will find me!"
